Miss Lou Calder entertained a party of 20 couples of her friends in an enjoyable manner at her home on Maple avenue last evening. Dancing was enjoyed during the evening and refreshments were served.

The whole football team of Montpelier Seminary was in this city yesterday afternoon to attend the Brigham Goddard game, evidently to get a line on Goddard's warriors. Brigham plays Montpelier this afternoon.

T. H. Hill, missionary to Central Africa, will speak in Gospel Hall, Nichols block, Tuesday and Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock. His address will be illustrated with stereopticon views and is very interesting. No collection. All welcome.

L. M. Williams was very pleasantly surprised by a party of his friends last evening at his home on Jefferson street in honor of his birthday. The evening was spent in a social manner and the party extended their best wishes to the host for many happy returns of the day.

The band concert at the Park by the Montpelier Military Band last evening was an enjoyable one, that is, enjoyable between shivers. The weather was so cold that a smaller crowd than usual attended and those who did attend had to keep moving in order to be comfortable. The band, too, did not wait long between the numbers.

Tonight in Salvation Army hall a lecture will be given by Ensign Foote entitled "Geography of the Salvation Army." The Ensign will also be with us all day Sunday. The quiet of the past week in police circles was broken yesterday by the arrest of two men for intoxication. Both are pavers at work on Main street. George Kelley, arrested by Chief Brown yesterday afternoon, was in for a second offense. He pleaded guilty this forenoon and was fined $15 with costs of $8.64. John Glover was arrested last night by Officer Nicholson.

A trip to the summit of Camel's Hump will be taken by a party of young men tomorrow, leaving Barre tonight on the midnight train and going to Waterbury where they will stop for the night. Early Sunday morning they will go by team to the foot of the mountain and then walk the remaining distance. One of the party, George F. Ball, is to carry a large flag, five by seven feet, with a black center, which he will set up on the summit at noon. If the day is clear the flag may be seen from this city if anyone takes the trouble to go out on one of the hills with field glasses.

Plain facts, carefully stated, constitute the announcements of the Colonial Moving Picture company. This combined with a zealous regard for the work done forms the keystone of the success they have attained. The advertising and display announcements of the Colonial Moving Picture Company do not wholly set forth the merits of this excellent entertainment. Satisfactory reports reach us from several points where the company has appeared. At the opera house, Tuesday evening, Sept. 22, Benefit fire department hospital fund. Did You Ever Stop To Figure

The Difference in Cost Between a GOOD Roof and a Shingle Roof.

You will pay for good shingles $2.00 to $3.50 per thousand, and for putting them on, from $1.50 to $2.00. You can buy RUBEROID that will cover the same amount of surface for $2.50 and put it on for 50 cents. "Ruberoid" will last longer than tin, iron, shingles or any other prepared roofing. Isn't it the cheapest and best to buy? Write or call for samples.
